

Agreement for Electronic Delivery of Notices

This agreement is to provide for electronic Delivery of Notices pursuant to Tax Code §1.07 and 1.085. The agreement only applies to the property owner or person designated by the property owner that is entitled to receive a Notice under Tax Code §1.07. Before executing this agreement, all applicable laws and rules should be reviewed carefully, including Tax Code §1.07.

Section §1.085 of the Tax Code provides that any notice, rendition, application form, or completed application that is required or permitted to be delivered between a chief appraiser, an appraisal district, an appraisal review board, or any combination of those persons and a property owner or between a chief appraiser, an appraisal district, an appraisal review board, or any combination of those persons and a person designated by a property owner under Section 1.111(f), Tax Code may be delivered in an electronic format if the chief appraiser and the property owner or person designated by the owner enter into an agreement pursuant to Section 1.085, Tax Code. The delivery via electronic format is effective on receipt by the chief appraiser, appraisal district, appraisal review board, property owner, or the person designated by the property owner. The agreement remains in effect until rescinded in writing by the property owner or person designated by the owner. The Notices covered by the agreement are: (1) Notices of Appraised Value; (2) Hearing Notifications; (3) Orders Determining Protest; and (4) Dismissals. Communication will be via e-mail informing the property owner of the DCAD link to view the document(s) listed above. The means for confirming delivery of communication will be the recording of the login, via a personalized PIN, of the taxpayer and the viewing of the communicated electronic documents listed above. The means for protecting the security of a communication is through the personalized PIN # and password and your e-mail address is confidential according to Section 552.137, Tex. Govt. Code.
