NOTICE OF APPEAL BY PROPERTY OWNER FORM INSTRUCTIONS

Appeal to the State Office of the Administrative Hearings:

A property owner who disagrees with an order of an Appraisal Review Board may appeal the order to the State Office of Administrative Hearings for a hearing before an administrative law judge if the value of the subject property as determined by the Appraisal Review Board is more than one million dollars. To appeal an Appraisal Review Board Order, the property owner must complete this Notice of Appeal within thirty days after receipt of the Appraisal Review Board Order. A $1,500 deposit, payable to the State Office of Administrative Hearings, is required. The deposit includes a $300 filing fee. The deposit must be filed with the chief appraiser within 90 days after you receive notice of the Appraisal Review Board Order. The property owner may also be required to pay the costs of the appeal.

Filing the Appeal:

The completed Notice of Appeal and the deposit must be filed with the chief appraiser of the county in which the property is located. The chief appraiser will forward the Notice of Appeal and deposit with the State Office of Administrative Hearings.

Costs of Appeal:

The administrative law judge will issue a determination of the appraised or market value of the subject property after the hearing. If the judge's determination of the value is nearer to the value stated in this Notice of Appeal than to the value determined by the Appraisal Review Board in its order, the deposit, including the filing fee, will be refunded and the Appraisal District will pay all the costs of the appeal. If the judge's determination of the value is nearer to the value determined by the Appraisal Review Board, the State Office of Administrative Hearings will retain the deposit, and the property owner will also be required to pay any costs of appeal that are in excess of $1,500. Such costs include the judge's time at the hourly rate established by the General Appropriations Act, travel expenses, and other similar expenses.
